

December 3, 2025

International Day of Persons with Disabilities

This day raises awareness about the experiences of people with disabilities and the importance of building a more accessible world. It reminds us that disability inclusion means designing spaces, communities, and systems that work for everyone.

Check out the Inclusion
Playbook to learn more.

